

Solverminds (SVM) is a software solution company specializes in the provision of enterprise resources planning system for the liner container shipping industry. The company's flagship application SVM ERP © Application Suite is a scalable application developed using Java technology. The application is currently being used by renowned global container carriers with 1,500+ users in over 50 countries.

The company has recently attained the MSC Status and is now looking to expand its market in the Asia pacific Region with the setting up of Malaysia office to serve its growing customers in the region. To help realized its expansion plan the company is now seeking qualified IT professionals to fill the following position:

Software Engineer / Senior Software Engineer
(Location: Selangor, Malaysia)

The Candidate:

- A Malaysian citizen with at least 2-3 years of post graduate working experience in the software development with an information technology company;
- Holder of a recognized university degree, post Graduate diploma or diploma in Computer Science/Information Technology/Business Information System or equivalent;
- A team player with good command of written and spoken language in English and Mandarin;
- Hands on experience with one or more JAVA technology: JAVA SWING, JBOSS, EJB, Ajax etc.;
- A good understanding of UML including ability to do reverse engineering of Java source code

The job:

- To lead a team of software developers to analyze, design, develop and test the company's flagship application;
- To ensure java source codes are optimized and written in compliance to company's standards;
- To write UML document for new software development including to reverse engineer of existing Java programs;
- To conduct training on the practical use of UML tools and technical documentation standards.

The Package:

We offer competitive remuneration package and opportunities to work on world-class application that powers the global blue-chip shipping companies.